

The Similarities Between Jude and Second Peter

Anyone reading Second Peter and Jude will notice a great deal of similarity, which makes it obvious that one is quoting from the other. Peter wrote in the future tense, while Jude writes in the past tense. Peter predicted events that would happen in the future, whereas, Jude writes about the same events after they have already occurred. It is apparent that Second Peter is quoting Jude (see Ac - The Book of Jude from a Jewish Perspective: Date), and there are thirteen quotations from Second Peter contained in the book of Jude.<sup>8</sup>

Jude 3	Second Peter 1:5
Jude 4	Second Peter 2:1 and 3b
Jude 6	Second Peter 2:4
Jude 7	Second Peter 2:6
Jude 8	Second Peter 2:10
Jude 9	Second Peter 2:11
Jude 10	Second Peter 2:12
Jude 11	Second Peter 2:15
Jude 12	Second Peter 2:13
Jude 12-13	Second Peter 2:17
Jude 16	Second Peter 2:18
Jude 17	Second Peter 3:2
Jude 18	Second Peter 3:3