

Abraham Pleads for Sodom

18: 16-33

Just as the previous section had a rhetorical question: Is anything too hard for the Lord, so does this section: Will not the Judge of all the earth do right? Therefore, the predominant theme in this section is justice. Surely ADONAI is able to do whatever He chooses to do, but will it be right? Will it be just? The answer is plain for all to see, as shown by His replies to Abraham's pleadings.
