The Camp of the Twelve Tribes of Isra'el

2: 1-34

The camp of the twelve tribes of Isra'el DIG: Describe the order in which the tribes were placed in the camp. Was there any significance to that order? How does the camp of Isra'el compare to the camp of God? Why was the tribe of Judah so favored?

RELECT: The book of Numbers records 150 occurrences of ADONAI speaking to Moshe. How does God speak to you today? Do you think God is concerned about the everyday aspects of your life? Why? Why not? How much organization do you need in your life?

ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron His servants: The Israelites are to camp around the Tabernacle some distance from it, each man under his standard with the banners of his family (Numbers 2:1-2). It was important for God's army to be orderly and disciplined. Jewish tradition suggests that the standard for the tribe of Judah was a lion; the standard for the tribe of Reuben was the face of a man; the standard for the tribe of Ephraim was an ox; and the standard for the tribe of Dan was an eagle. These were the same as the faces of the cherubim that Ezeki'el saw in his vision during the Babylonian captivity (Ezekiel 1:10), and that John saw around the throne of God (Revelation 4:6b-8). So as far as the positioning of the standards are concerned, you would see the lion on the east, an ox on the west, an eagle on the north and the face of a man on the south. Like the New Jerusalem with three gates on each side (Revelation 21:13), there will be three tribes on each side of the Tabernacle.

The choice of Judah and Ephraim for the heads of encampments is fairly obvious in that those two houses represent the powerful houses of Judah and Joseph, recipients of the "rulership" and firstborn rights, respectively. Less obvious is the choice of Reuben and Dan. Perhaps their rank is also, in some measure, derived from the firstborn privilege. Reuben was the natural firstborn of Jacob, though his status as such was revoked (see the commentary on Genesis, to see link click 1k - Reuben Slept with His Father's Concubine Bilhah). Dan was the actual firstborn of Rachel's house, the son of the maidservant Bilhah.³³

To enter the Tabernacle you had to go through the tribe of Judah, because the entrance was on its eastern side. On the east, toward the sunrise, the divisions of the camp of Judah are to encamp under their standard of a lion. And we see in the book of Revelation that Yeshua is the Lion of the tribe of Judah (see the commentary on Revelation Ce - The Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the Root of David Has Triumphed). The lion represents His strength, authority, and royalty. But it is also given to us that He would come from the tribe of Judah. He would be the son of David who would reign on the throne. In Solomon's porch there were six steps that led up to his throne. On each step were two lions, one on each side. There were twelve lions all together. This represented all twelve tribes under one king. This corresponds to the book of Matthew that pictures Jesus as the King. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab who appears in later genealogies in the messianic line (Ruth 4:20 and Matthew 1:4). His division numbers 74,600 (Numbers 2:3-4). The tribe of Issachar will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar. His division is 54,400 (Numbers 2:5-6). The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon. His division numbers 57,400 (Numbers 2:7-8). All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. The tribes in this division represented the fourth, fifth and sixth sons of Leah. When they marched, the standard of a lion went out first (Numbers 2:9).

On the south were the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard of the face of a man. Ezekiel was standing on the Kebar River looking north when he saw the four living creatures and the Shechinah glory. They were coming out of the north, and that meant that the face of a man was facing south and would be Reuben's standard (Ezekiel 1:4 and 10). This corresponds to the book of Luke that pictures Yeshua as the Son of Man. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur. His division numbers 46,500 (Numbers 2:10-11). The tribe of Simeon will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. His division numbers 59,300 (Numbers 2:12-13). The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel. His division numbers 45,650 (Numbers 2:14-15). All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, number 151,450. Reuben and Simeon were the first and second sons of Leah. Levi was the third son, but that tribe could not make up part of the Reuben division because of its religious duties. So Gad, the oldest son of Leah's handmaid, was aligned with Reuben. In the line of march, this division set out second, under the face of a man as its standard, behind Judah (Numbers 2:16).

Then the Tabernacle and the camp of the Levites will dwell in the middle of the twelve tribes of Isra'el (Numbers 2:17a). The tribe of Levi was divided into three families, under his three sons, Gershon, Lohath and Merari. Each had his own separate place of encampment around the Tabernacle, and to each was committed a specific responsibility. The Merarites, who encamped on the north, watched over, erected, and carried all the solid framework of the Tabernacle, the pillars of the surrounding courts, together with the sockets of silver and brass. The weight might have been as much as fifteen tons. The Gershonites pitched towards the west, and had under their care the curtains, hangings and coverings of the Tabernacle and court, which they also carried on their journeys. To the Kohathites, whose camp was south, were given the duty of carrying the seven pieces of the Tabernacle furniture. Thus, it was all distributed among these three families of Levites, and each family had its own responsibility.³⁴ This was the way the tribes of Isra'el camped, but in the line of march they followed Reuben's division.

On the west were the divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard an ox. As the lion is the sign for the tribe of Judah, the ox is the sign for the tribe of Ephraim (Deuteronomy 33:13-17; Jeremiah 31:18; Hosea 10:11). In Solomon's temple there were twelve oxen sitting beneath a huge water tank called the sea. These twelve oxen were facing north, south, east and west. They represented Isra'el under the leadership of the tribe of Ephraim. Isra'el would soon be divided into two nations, the northern Kingdom and the southern Kingdom. The kings from the tribe of Ephraim would rule the northern Kingdom, and the kings from the tribe of Judah would lead the southern Kingdom. But the sign of the tribe of Ephraim was an ox. This corresponds to the book of Mark that pictures Yeshua as a Servant (Mark 10:45). The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud. His division numbers 40,500 (Numbers 2:18-19). The tribe of Manasseh will be next to them. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur. His division numbers 32,200 (Numbers 2:20-21). The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni. His division numbers 35,400 (Numbers 2:22-23). All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, number 108,100. These three tribes traced their ancestry to Jacob through his wife Rachael. In the line of march, they set out third and followed the Levites with the standard of an ox leading the way (Numbers 2:24).

On the north were the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their standard an eagle. Jacob had compared Dan to a serpent (Genesis 49:17), but that was changed later to an eagle. The leader of the people of Dan is Shiezer son of Ammishaddai. His division numbers 62,700 (Numbers 2:25-26). The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran. His division numbers 62,700 (Numbers 2:27-28). The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira, son of Enan. His division numbers 53,400 (Numbers 2:29-30). All the men assigned to the camp of Dan numbered 157,600. Dan and Naphtali were the sons of Rachel's handmaid, whereas, Asher was the second son of Leah's handmaid. In the line of march, they set out last, under their standard of an eagle (Numbers 2:31).

These are the Israelites, counted according to their families. All those in the camps, by their divisions, number 603,550 (Numbers 2:32). The Levites, however, were not counted along with the women and children, as God commanded Moses (Numbers 2:32-33). A certain rationale may be seen in the arrangement of the tribes on ancestral grounds, with the exception of Asher. But with the grouping of the Rachel tribes together and the elimination of Levi, there is hardly any other place for Asher to fit, so the overall pattern does appear to reflect maternal origins (see Ak - The Numbering of the Tribes).

So the Israelites did everything ADONAI commanded Moses; that is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they set out, each with his own clan, family, and each under his own standard (Numbers 2:34; 2:17b). The order of the line of march was according to the following diagram, all parties retaining as nearly as possible the relative position of the encampment. In this anticipatory passage (see Ac - Numbers from a Messianic Jewish Perspective: Anticipatory Passages) the fact that the camp traveled in the same formation at rest, anticipates the description of the camp in motion (see Bn - Leaving Sinai: The grand procession of tribes and Levites).³

The Camp of God: This organization of the camp teaches us about God's priorities. Three tribes were camped to the east, three to the north, three to the south, and three to the west. At the center of the camp of Isra'el was the camp of the Levites. At the center of the camp of the Israelites was the Tabernacle. Within the Tabernacle was the Most Holy Place; within the Most Holy Place was the ark of the Covenant; within the ark of the Covenant were the Tablets of the Testimony, in other words, the Torah.

Thus, the Torah is at the center of Isra'el.

In John's Revelation, he sees the New Jerusalem descend from heaven. The entire city is holy. It is the camp of the Sh'khinah glory. The City is accessed by twelve gates, three on each side. Upon each gate is written one of the tribal names. It had a great high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names were written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Isra'el. There were three gates on the east and three gates on the north and three gates on the south and three gates on the west (see the commentary on Revelation Fu - A Great High Wall with Twelve Gates). Therefore, the camp of Isra'el foreshadows the New Jerusalem, or perhaps the New Jerusalem is patterned after the camp of Isra'el in the wilderness. In either case, we see the obvious relationship between Numbers 2 and Revelation 21. The gates of the City of God are accessed only by the names of the tribes of Isra'el. They are the gates of His people.³⁶

Dear Heavenly Father, Praise You that for nothing will be impossible with God (Luke 1:37). To redeem mankind and take them to heaven is a huge task, but for the Almighty Sovereign God of the universe, it is a sure victory. The gates of heaven will be open to all who love Messiah as their Lord and Savior (Romans 10:9-10). Thank You that I can live a life in absolute confidence that when this short earthly life is over, the gates of heaven will be open for me (John 14:23). Messiah has conquered death and it is a joy that He is now in heaven preparing a place for me. Yeshua said: Do not let your heart be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in Me. In My Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to Myself, so that where I am you may also be (John 14:1-3). In Messiah Yeshua's holy Name and power of His resurrection. Amen
