When you are in a position of authority, you have a responsibility to lead your people in the way of the Lord. This is not just a matter of personal piety, but of public witness. As a leader, you are called to model the character of Christ to those who follow you. This means that you must be willing to sacrifice your own interests for the good of the church and the world. It also means that you must be willing to confront sin and error, even when it is difficult or unpopular. In the end, the only way to bring about true change in the world is through the power of the Holy Spirit, who works in the hearts of men and women to bring them to the knowledge of the truth. As a leader, you are called to be a vessel for the Spirit's work in the world.

It is not enough to be a good person, you must be a good leader. This means that you must be willing to take responsibility for the actions of those who follow you. It also means that you must be willing to listen to the concerns and suggestions of your people. A good leader is not afraid to admit when he or she is wrong, and is always seeking to improve himself or herself. In the end, the only way to lead your people in the way of the Lord is through the power of the Holy Spirit, who works in the hearts of men and women to bring them to the knowledge of the truth.
