The Ark Brought to the Temple

First Kings 8:1-11 and Second Chronicles 5:2-14

The ark brought to the Temple DIG: From where did Solomon remove the ark? What was the purpose of Solomon's sacrifices? Why was the ark placed in the Most Holy Place? Why is the length of the poles noted? Why mention the tablets? Why does it appear as the Sh'khinah glory?

REFLECT: What's the most exciting worship service you have ever experienced? How did it affect you? What in your life makes you feel close to God? Are you close now? If not, what changes do you need to make? When and where do you feel spiritually "at home?"

The Temple without the ark was like a body without a soul.

Without question, it was the most extraordinary worship service Isra'el had ever witnessed, and perhaps more awesome than any worship service has ever been offered to the living God on earth. Try to imagine the scene. For an entire week the whole nation of Isra'el had gathered around the Temple of ADONAI. As the celebration came to its climax, King Solomon appeared, and with him the leaders of Isra'el. As the people watched, myriads of priests came streaming out of the Temple. These men had dedicated themselves for the service of YHVH by washing in the great Bronze Sea that stood near the Holy Place by wearing white linen. Singers in the Levitical choir with their various instruments stood outside the Temple with their harps and lyres and cymbals, not to mention one-hundred-and-twenty trumpets. It was the orchestra of the living God.

On cue, all these musicians burst into praise. With one voice they offered a melody of thanksgiving to the LORD. Their musical text was a famous refrain from King David, "His steadfast love endures forever" (Psalms 136). As the people worshiped, the Sh'khinah glory came down to fill Solomon's Temple. Wow. It was the visible manifestation of the living God. With the addition of the ark of the Covenant, the Temple would become what Solomon had built it to become; not just a beautiful building, but the center of His people's worship, the earthly dwelling place for the true and living God.<sup>155</sup>

The ark was brought in: To bring the ark into the Temple, Solomon first had to go get it from the tent that David had pitched for it at the base of Mount Moriah (Second Samuel 6:17). Now it was time to bring the ark all the way up the mountain. The divine homecoming demanded the presence of everyone in Isra'el starting with the king himself. Then Solomon assembled all the leaders of Isra'el, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the paternal clans of the people of Isra'el, to King Solomon in Yerushalayim, to bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI out of the City of David, also known as Tziyon.

The divine homecoming demanded the presence of everyone in Isra'el starting with the king himself. All the men of Isra'el assembled before King Solomon at the festival in the month of Ethanium (today known as the month of Tishrei), the seventh month. The timing of the festival seems to be significant. Solomon finished building the Temple in the eighth month (First Kings 6:38). The ark was brought up in the seventh month, which presumably means that the Temple was dedicated eleven months after it was finished, which would give enough time for the priests to make all the necessary preparations. During the seventh month, all of Isra'el would be celebrating the festival of Sukkot. It was then that Moses renewed the covenant with the second generation of freed Israelites. He also commanded them to read the Torah at that observance every seven years (see the commentary on Deuteronomy Ft - The Reading of Deuteronomy). Solomon's choice of the Sukkot for the dedication, then, was strategic in that it was a traditional time of national gathering, a reminder of Isra'el's conquest of Canaan, and a time of religious renewal.<sup>156</sup>

The priests and Levites took the ark of ADONAI and brought it up from the tent of meeting along with all the holy utensils, in keeping with the Torah (see the commentary on Numbers, to see link click At - Duties of the Three Divisions). The God who deserves everyone's praise also demands every sacrifice. We see this in the countless offerings people made as the ark ascended the Temple Mount. King Solomon and the whole community of Isra'el assembled in his presence and were with him in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen in numbers beyond counting or recording (First Kings 8:1-5; Second Chronicles 5:2-6).

Appropriately enough, the ark of the Covenant was put in the Most Holy Place in the Temple. The priests brought the ark for the covenant of ADONAI in to its place inside the Sanctuary to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim. This sacred place was made in the shape of a perfect cube covered with pure gold. It was the throne room of YHVH - an earthly copy of the place where God rules in heaven (Hebrews 9:24). To be more specific, the ark of the Covenant was the place where ADONAI sits enthroned above the cherubim (First Chronicles 13:6; Psalm 80:1). Cherubim are holy angels who are constantly worshiping and serving Ha'Shem. The cherubim spread out their wings over the place for the ark, covering the ark and its poles from above.<sup>157</sup> This emphatic comment probably is intended to clear up the possible misconceptions that Aaron's staff (Numbers 17:10) and a jar of manna (Exodus 16:33) were there as well. Those items were placed alongside the ark but never in it, but by Solomon's time they were no longer available for placement in the Most Holy Place.<sup>158</sup>

The poles, placed horizontally between the giant cherubim on either side of the ark, were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside. The priests who served in the Temple never saw the ark, but they could see the poles that were used to carry it, and thus they knew that the ark was still in its rightful place. There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moshe put there at Horeb, when ADONAI made the covenant with the people of Isra'el at the time of their leaving the land of Egypt (First Kings 8:6-9; Second Chronicles 5:7-10).

Whenever we come into the presence of YHVH for worship, we should honor Him for His holiness. We should set Him apart as the one and only God. We should recognize His supremely perfect being. We should bow before Him as the holy, holy, holy, God. If we understand that God is everywhere and that Yeshua is with us wherever we go, then everything in life will be bathed with a sense of divine holiness. The same God who is adored by angels and dwells in awesome majesty is also living in us by the Ruach making our hearts a sacred space. Therefore, anywhere a believer stands is holy ground - even in places of darkness and sin. We carry God's glory with us wherever we go. Furthermore, every conversation we have is a holy opportunity that the Spirit can use to help us bear witness to the Gospel of the crucified and risen Messiah.<sup>159</sup>

The glory came down: This brings us to the most dramatic moment in the story of Solomon and the ark of the Covenant, the moment when God descended in unapproachable glory. The whole worship service had been spectacular. When the priests came out of the Holy Place (for all the cohanim who were present had consecrated themselves; they didn't keep to their divisions; also the Levites who were the singers, all of them - Asaf, Heman, Y'dutun and their sons and relatives - dressed in fine linen, with cymbals, lutes and lyres, stood on the east side of the altar; and with them 120 priests sounding trumpets), then, when the trumpeters and singers were playing in harmony, to be heard praising and thanking ADONAI, and they lifted their voices together with the trumpets, cymbals and other musical instruments to praise ADONAI. But shortly after the priests carried the ark into the Temple, they came running back out because the house of ADONAI was filled with the Sh'khinah glory; and as a result, the priests could not stand up to perform their service, for the Sh'khinah glory filled the Temple (First Kings 8:10-11; Second Chronicles 5:11-14). So, just as ADONAI authenticated the Tabernacle (see the commentary on Exodus Hh - The Glory of the LORD Filled the Tabernacle), God now authenticated the Temple in the same way.

For all its magnificence, the Temple, with all its golden splendor, was made infinitely more magnificent with the Presence of the Sh'khinah glory. Here is how the Puritan Matthew Henry described what Solomon's Temple would be without God, "The Temple, though richly beautiful, yet while it was without the ark was like a body without a soul, or a candlestick without a candle, or a house without an inhabitant. All the cost and pains to build the splendid structure would be lost if God did not accept them; and, unless He desires to own it as the place where He will dwell, it is, after all, but a ruinous heap."

We could say the same thing about the Church of Yeshua Messiah, made up of Jewish and Gentile believers (Ephesians 2:14). We are nothing without our God. This is true of buildings where we worship. Is anything more tragic than to see a magnificent house of worship where YHVH is no longer worshiped, where the Gospel is no longer preached, and where the Spirit of God is no longer present? The same principle holds true for the ministries of the Church. Unless the Lord is with us, none of our work that we do - none of the teaching and preaching, none of the caring and sharing, none of the mercy or missionary evangelism - will make any difference for the Kingdom of God. What would a prayer meeting be without the Presence of God to guide people in their prayers? What would a children's class be without the help of the Ruach in teaching and applying the Scriptures? What would mercy ministry be without the living Presence of Messiah in feeding the hungry or visiting the prisoner?

But when ADONAI is in the house, His Word goes out with power and His Spirit changes people's lives from the inside out. What a blessing it was for Isra'el to see the Sh'khinah glory filling the Temple of the LORD. It was a blessing for the king, because the Sh'khinah confirmed that God would indeed bless the house that Solomon built in His name. It was a blessing for the priests, too, because it showed them the glorious holiness of the One they were called to serve.

It is also a blessing for us, because we too are in the Presence of the God of Solomon. He has revealed Himself to us, especially in His Word, so that we can perceive His glory. But we will never be able to manage or control YHVH. We will never be able to keep Him in one place and say that we know everything there is to know about Him. There will always be glorious mysteries about the character of ADONAI that go beyond our finite comprehension. The more we get to know Him, the more awesome His glory will seem to us.<sup>160</sup>
