How do we know that Jesus is the Son of God?

How do we know that Jesus is the Son of God? We know that Jesus is the Son of God because of the miracles he performed, the prophecies that were fulfilled in his life, and the testimony of those who followed him. Jesus claimed to be the Son of God, and he was crucified for his claims. The Bible records many miracles that Jesus performed, such as healing the sick, raising the dead, and walking on water. These miracles were signs that Jesus was the Son of God. The prophecies that were fulfilled in his life, such as his birth in Bethlehem and his death on the cross, also point to him as the Son of God. The testimony of those who followed him, including the apostles, is another reason we know that Jesus is the Son of God. They saw him perform miracles and heard him teach about the Kingdom of God. The Bible also records the testimony of those who were crucified with Jesus, as well as the testimony of those who were present at his resurrection. All of these things point to Jesus as the Son of God. (John 1:1-18; Matthew 28:1-10)
