–Save This Page as a PDF–

Purim Parodies

Purim parodies began in the twelfth century AD and started as a distinct branch of literature in Italy. These Purim parodies were either songs or poems that were a parody. Often they deal with the Passover, but in parody form.[134]