The Fifth Seal: I Saw Under the Altar Those Who Had Been Slain 6: 9-11

The fifth seal: I saw under the altar those who had been slain DIG: What is revealed by the opening of the fifth seal? What is the significance of the souls of the martyrs being under the altar? What is their cry? How is the phrase the inhabitants of the earth used in Revelation (see 11:10, 13:8 and 12, 17:2 and 8, 3:10, 8:13)? What is the significance of the white robe? How is this related to the suffering of the messianic community in Yochanan's day? In our day?

REFLECT: What's the worst thing that has happened to you because of your faithfulness to the Word of God? Have you ever had to wait a long time for justice to be handed out? How would you have felt if someone told you that you had to wait a little longer? Can you understand their desire to be avenged? Is that wrong, or merely just? Why? Who is to hand out the vengeance (Rom 12:19)? Why is that important?

Following the Rapture, millions will accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. World leaders will say that these believers will be a threat to world peace, world government, world religion and the environment. Just as the Jews were a scapegoat during the Third Reich, messianic believers will become a scapegoat during the Great Tribulation. Today followers of the New Age movement teach that the earth must undergo a cleansing before society can progress. Part of the cleansing process will be the death of all believers.

As with the first four seals, when the Lamb opened the fifth seal, John saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the Word of God and the testimony they had maintained (6:9). These souls were not believers at the beginning of the Great Tribulation, but were won to Messiah by the preaching of the 144,000 Jews (7:1-8), the two witnesses (11:3), from others won to Yeshua the Lamb before being martyred, or even through Bibles or messianic literature left behind by raptured believers. They had been beheaded for not taking the mark of the beast (to see link click Fe - I Saw Those Beheaded Because of Their Testimony for Jesus).

John saw the souls under the golden altar of incense in heaven (Hebrews 9:4). The earthly Tabernacle was merely a replica of the heavenly one (see my commentary on Exodus Fp - The Altar of Incense: Christ, Our Advocate with the Father). Earlier, when the Lamb was found worthy to open the title deed to the earth, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders each held golden bowls full of incense, or the prayers of the saints (see Psalm 141:2). Later during the Trumpet Judgments, John would see an angel who had a golden censer. The angel was given much incense to offer, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar of incense before the throne in heaven (8:2-3).

They had been slain because of the Word of God and their testimony before an unbelieving world. Some of the souls will be from believing families who were caught up in the Rapture. Others will be Jews who finally realize that Jesus is the Messiah. While others will have heard the message of the gospel for the first time. Over time they will finally come to grips with their sin and turn to Yeshua who said: I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more. But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after the killing of the body, has power to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him (Luke 12:4-5).²¹² The Word of God teaches the resurrection and the lordship of Christ. No believer could confess the lordship of Christ and at the same time bow to the lordship of the antichrist. In the story of the martyrdom of Polycarp, father of the faith, he was promised freedom if he would only reject Messiah and swear that Caesar was Lord. However, he would not and was burned at the stake, the souls under the altar in heaven will not swear loyalty to the antichrist and will be slain as a result.

They called out in a loud voice, “How long, Sovereign Ruler, holy and true, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood” (6:10)? This plea to YHVH for justice and vengeance finds its roots in the TaNaKh, prayers calling for God to take a stand against the enemies of righteousness (Psalm 94:1-5). Here, these martyrs make an appeal on that basis (Romans 12:19) because the LORD is holy and cannot tolerate sin. They are asking, “How long, ADONAI until You judge this sin?” The phrase, the inhabitants of the earth points to men and women who are in rebellion and hostile to God during the Great Tribulation (3:10, 11:10, 13:8 and 14, 14:6, 17:8). It is a cold hard fact that if people don’t want to accept Christ right now when no persecution is involved, when the Great Tribulation comes (although they can still be saved) people will only be saved as one escaping through the flames (First Corinthians 3:15).

Does not God Himself affirm that the blood of the righteous cries out for judgment? The rebels of the earth will one day take on the holy God of the universe. They will challenge ELOHIM's attributes of purity and righteousness. So to be who He says He is, Ha'Shem must avenge the blood of the souls under the altar. When Cain killed his brother Abel, God asked: What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground (Genesis 4:10).²¹³ In the same way, the blood of the Tribulation martyrs will cry out to ADONAI from under the altar.

Then each of them will be given a white robe. The literal interpretation of Scripture should always be followed if possible. But here, physical robes would need to be placed on physical bodies. Since these martyrs will not be resurrected and receive their resurrection bodies until the end of the seventy-five day interval between the Second Coming and the start of the Messianic Kingdom (20:4-6), their robes are symbolic of their righteousness, or their justification in Jesus Christ. By means of the red blood of Messiah, they will be made white, or pure.²¹⁴ If you are a believer today, you were justified at the moment you accepted Yeshua. Justification is a once-for-all-time act of God whereby, negatively, He forgives your sins and positively, He declares you righteous by transferring all the obedience and righteousness of Christ to you through faith. Having been justified by His grace, we might become heirs having hope of eternal life (Titus 3:7).

The martyrs were given assurance that their prayers would be answered, but the day of God's wrath (Romans 2:5), had not arrived yet. And they were told to wait a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants, brothers and sisters, all who were to be killed as they had been was completed (6:11). God knows the exact number. It has been fixed from all eternity past. But until that number is realized, the final Day of Judgment cannot come (19:11-18).

Then God tells the martyrs under the altar in heaven that they must wait a little while longer, until the number of innocent deaths is completed. They will have to wait until the second half of the Great Tribulation, when the Bowl Judgments will pour out God's wrath upon an unrepentant world (see Ed - The Third Angel Poured Out His Bowl on the Rivers and Springs of Water and They Became Blood). At that time the number of martyrs will be complete and it will be time to settle accounts. Those under the altar will shout out to ADONAI with joy: True and just are Your judgments (16:7b)!

YHVH is not being cruel. In fact, His response is a cause for hope because the very fact that a limit is placed on the number of martyrs means that the suffering will not go on forever. There will be a point at which it is over, when God's justice will finally be seen by the whole world and when there will be no more tears (7:17c).

We all need a little bit of hope. It can be awfully discouraging to look at the state of the world. We may wonder why Ha'Shem doesn't just intervene right now and set everything right. So many of our brothers and sisters are being persecuted and killed for their faith in the Lord. So many die because they just happened to be born in the "wrong" place at the "wrong" time - during a famine, plague or war. We ourselves may suffer exclusion or economic setbacks because of our faith. But Yeshua wants to tell you that this will not last forever. We can hope in Him and be patient a little while longer.

*Heavenly Father, You hold this world in Your hands. Your time and purposes are beyond our understanding. Nevertheless, I trust in You, my loving Father, to work all these things out for the good and for the salvation of the world. I trust in You, ADONAI.²¹⁵ Fear has no home here, for You are the Sovereign ruler and in control! Death's power has been broken and conquered by Yeshua's resurrection. For we know that if the tent, our earthly home, is torn down, we have a building from God - a home not made with human hands, eternal in the heavens (Second Corinthians 5:1). For to me, to live is Messiah and to die is gain. (Philippians 1:21). I look to You in love and wait for Your perfect timing to vanquish all evil and win victoriously the world's last battle (Revelation 19). In Your holy Son's name and power of His resurrection. Amen
