How to Start a Bible Study

1. Choose a Bible. There are many different versions of the Bible. Some are easier to read than others. Choose one that you like and that is easy to read.

2. Choose a plan. There are many different plans for reading the Bible. Some are more structured than others. Choose one that works for you.

3. Find a study partner. It is easier to read the Bible with someone else. Find a friend who is also interested in the Bible.

4. Set a time. Find a time each day to read the Bible. Make it a habit.

5. Pray. Ask God for help and guidance as you read the Bible.

6. Discuss. Talk about what you are reading with your study partner. This will help you understand the Bible better.

7. Be consistent. Read the Bible every day, even if it is just for a few minutes.

8. Be patient. It takes time to understand the Bible. Don't get discouraged if you don't understand everything right away.

9. Be open-minded. Be willing to learn and grow. Don't be afraid to ask questions.

10. Be grateful. Thank God for His word and for the help of your study partner.
