

-Save This Page as a PDF-

Passover and the Resurrection

Passover is a Jewish festival that commemorates the liberation of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. It is celebrated on the 14th day of the month of Nisan, which usually falls in the spring. The festival is based on the biblical story of the Exodus, where God struck the firstborn of the Egyptians with the plague of the firstborn, while sparing the Israelites. The Israelites then left Egypt and traveled to the Promised Land. The festival is celebrated by eating a special meal called the Seder, which includes the consumption of matzah (unleavened bread) and the telling of the story of the Exodus. The festival is also a time of reflection and prayer for the Jewish people.

Passover is a Jewish festival that commemorates the liberation of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. It is celebrated on the 14th day of the month of Nisan, which usually falls in the spring. The festival is based on the biblical story of the Exodus, where God struck the firstborn of the Egyptians with the plague of the firstborn, while sparing the Israelites. The Israelites then left Egypt and traveled to the Promised Land. The festival is celebrated by eating a special meal called the Seder, which includes the consumption of matzah (unleavened bread) and the telling of the story of the Exodus. The festival is also a time of reflection and prayer for the Jewish people.

000000000 000000000000000000. 0000, 0000 000000000000 0000000000 0000000000
00000000000000000000 0000 0000000000 00000000000000 0000000000000000 000000.